

Local Chapter Meeting of IAVP Held on 7th January 2009 at Department of Veterinary Pathology, GADVASU, Ludhiana

The first ever meeting of the local chapter of Indian Association of Veterinary Pathologists (IAVP) held on 7th January 2009 at Department of Veterinary Pathology, GADVASU, Ludhiana.

The meeting was presided by Dr. Naresh Kumar Sood, Sr. Veterinary Pathologist-cum-Head, Department of Veterinary Pathology, in which Dr. Anil T. Kumar Secretary General IAVP, Dr. V. K. Gupta, Secretary General of Indian College of Veterinary Pathologists (ICVP), Dr. C.K. Singh, Zonal Secretary (North Zone), Dr. Amarjit Singh, Web Manager IAVP and faculty members of Department of Veterinary Pathology participated as life members of the local chapter of the association. In the daylong meeting, discussions were primarily focused on recent scientific development in the field of Veterinary Pathology and affairs of the IAVP and ICVP. The arrangements for holding the next IAVP conference, and ICVP meetings and examination were reviewed and major details chalked out. It was also decided to activate the local and regional chapters of IAVP and to organize more such meetings in future for the benefit of veterinary pathologists in particular and veterinary profession in general. Dr. Naresh Kumar Sood thanked the invitees for choosing the Department of Veterinary Pathology, GADVASU, Ludhiana as the venue as model for initiation of meetings of the local chapter of IAVP. The visiting officials of the IAVP and ICVP also held meetings with the worthy Vice Chancellor and officials of GADVASU.